School Holiday Camps for Kids

The Spirit of Phar Lap

Underbank Stud is best known as the holiday home of Phar Lap, where Australia's most famous horse spent much of his time spelling; a few days at Underbank and you will soon know why! Nestled in a hidden valley with wonderful views of Werribee Vale, Underbank's school holiday camps provide a safe and nurturing environment for your children.

Where is Underbank?

Underbank Stud is located at Bacchus Marsh, approximately 50 minutes from Melbourne's CBD. Just off the Western Highway, Bacchus Marsh is an idyllic country town with the longest recognised "Avenue of Honour" in the world.

Underbank is a five minute drive from the centre of Bacchus Marsh. For a detailed map of how to get to Underbank please click on the "directions" button on our home page.

Who is running the Camp?

Our fabulous Underbank team, dedicated to offering the very best in country hospitality! Experienced leaders are on duty at all times to ensure your children's stay is a most memorable holiday.

We ride most days, and the horse riding clinic is run by our resident horse riding instructor and her team. Underbank handlers are also very involved in lessons to help more nervous riders feel right at home.

When is the camp?

Underbank has camps every school holidays. Camp starts at 4:00pm on the Sunday and conclude with a short presentation ceremony at 4:00pm on the Friday. Parents are welcome to arrive at 3.30pm to watch the farewell ceremony.

What is Included?

- Accommodation (air conditioned/heated), pillow and doona
- Fabulous food; Underbank camps are famous for their yummy meals! Hearty country breakfasts, fun lunches and filling dinners after a day of activity. We encourage the kids to wash up and dress nicely for dinner, so please ensure they pack accordingly.
- All activities and materials
- All horse riding and horse related riding costs such as helmets, saddlery and the use of our marvelous trained school horses

Activities

Not only is there lots of horse riding (weather permitting) but children also have the opportunity to enjoy other organised activities including, hay rides, story telling, fabulous camp fires, movies, karaoke, theatre sports, initiative games, arts & crafts, archery, skit nights, orienteering, nature walks, swimming (weather permitting) and much more. (Kindly note activities do vary from camp to camp.)

Visits, Phone Calls & Mobile Phone Policy

Phone calls & visits to children during camp are not permitted. Experience has shown that such visits and calls tend to disrupt the camp, rest assured, if there are any issues whatsoever we will contact you immediately.

Underbank camps have a strict NO mobile phone policy; please ensure that your children do not bring mobile phones to camp.

What should I bring?

- Bed Linen, Towels – Doona cover, fitted sheet and pillowcase. Underbank provides inner spring mattresses. (For health purposes sleeping bags alone are not permitted.)
- Toiletries: Soap, Shampoo, toothbrush, paste, insect repellent and sunscreen
- A small back-pack – perfect to keep your drink & sunscreen with you at all times.
- Riding boots or simple inexpensive “pull on” boots. (These can be found at Target, Dimmeys, etc.) Please wear them in first to prevent blisters.
- Pants suitable for riding: track suit pants, loose jeans. Jodhpurs are ideal!
- Helmet – if you have one bring it with you, and we can see if it is Safety Standard Approved. Riding Safety Vest – Optional but highly recommended!
- Waterproof/Oilskin jacket/Rain coat/Parka
- Thick socks or slippers for inside purposes (standard farm policy - shoes to be left outside)
- Extra sets of underwear, clothes and shoes – Keeping in mind Melbourne’s 4 seasons in 1 day
- Clothes and shoes to get muddy and wet in (you never know what’s going to happen in one of our activities.)
- Plastic Bags (for dirty washing)
- Bathers (weather permitting)
- All medications (must be noted on the application form) and to be handed to the Underbank Team on arrival
- Spending money – Tuck shop will be held each day where soft drinks and snacks are available. (Please don’t pack too much junk food for the kids, as it is unfair for those who do not have, and encourages midnight snacking.)
- Water bottle (essential)
- Underbank enforces a strict “Slip, Slop, Slap” policy, so sun hat, and sun block are essential.
- Camera
